Change is inevitable, growth is optional

Instructor Profile – Roger Isaacs

Roger Isaacs has been studying Ki Aikido in Vancouver for 20 years and teaching for 15 years. He currently holds the rank of Yondan (4th degree black belt) in Ki Aikido, Chuden in Ki Development, and is a Certified Associate Lecturer and Assistant Examiner of the Ki Society International.

He is an experienced leader, manager, coach and mentor with 6 years in the Royal Air Force in the UK and over 20 years in the telecommunications sector. During his career, he has held senior positions in operations management and project management with Rogers Wireless, Microcell Connexions (FIDO) and TELUS Communications Inc.

He has been applying the principles from Ki Aikido throughout his career in management and has found them to be the most effective tools he has used when managing and leading people, especially during times of intense pressure, adversity, rapidly shifting priorities and the uncertainty around change.
